1. PREAMBLE

The ability to identify and attract talented persons who would add value to the Municipality is depended on the overall recruitment and selection process followed in the Municipality. It is imperative that proper recruitment channels and strategies are followed to ensure that talented persons are identified and attracted in order to allow an inflow of new ideas and perspective into the Municipality. The department shall appoint and develop people with potential at all levels, drawing on the best skill available from within the relevant labour market.

Internal employees shall be given prior consideration for job appointments in line with their career paths and progression. In strategic position the Executive Council shall decide on the incumbent of the post in line with Municipal Systems Act, of 2000 (Section). The selection process, inclusive of the short listing panel, interview panel and the final selection of the candidate to be appointed, is critical as this determines the person to ultimately join the Municipality.

The municipality considers itself an Equal Opportunity Employer and thus aims to eliminate all forms of unfair discrimination in the recruitment and selection process. The policy shall address the appointment of persons from designated groups who can play a pivotal role in the future success of the Municipality. In order to facilitate this, the guidelines laid out in this policy shall be strictly adhered to.
